

Developing Good Technique

Home activities help develop good form or build stamina in a particular skill. When the skill has been mastered on land or in a bathtub, it becomes easier to perform in the water.

1 Position

Lie on back in bathtub with straight arms and legs, head tilted slightly back, looking at ceiling.

2 Float

Keeping the back flat and in the water, float for 10 seconds.

3 Relax & Repeat

After 10 seconds, come out of the float position. Rest for a few seconds, then repeat the complete activity three times. Do this activity two to three times throughout the course of the swim lessons session.

Home activities should be performed under adult supervision.

1 Position

Lie on back on floor with straight arms and legs. Extend arms in a glide position: hands together, elbows straight, biceps behind ears, and head slightly tilted back, looking at ceiling.

2 Hold

Keeping the back on the floor, lift legs and arms a couple of inches off the ground and hold for 10 seconds.

3 Relax & Repeat

After 10 seconds, let the arms and legs relax. Rest for a few seconds, then repeat the complete activity three times. Do this activity two to three times throughout the course of the swim lessons session.

Developing Good Technique

Home activities help develop good form or build stamina in a particular skill. When the skill has been mastered on land, it becomes easier to perform in the water.

1 Position

In a standing position, look straight ahead, not up or down, and extend one arm above the head. Next, begin moving that arm toward the floor as you move the other arm toward the head.

2 Zip Side With Arms

Pretend there is a zipper along the side of the body. When the hand that is moving toward the floor gets to the thigh, use it to “zip up” the side, keeping it in contact with the body at all times, as the other arm begins to move toward the floor.

3 Alternate

Continue the arm motions for 10 cycles, rest, and repeat three times. Do this activity two to three times throughout the course of the swim lessons session.

Home activities should be performed under adult supervision.
