Once upon a time the three little pigs each built a house, one of straw, one of wood and one of bricks...

Then Rumpelstiltskin appeared and said he could turn straw into gold.

Then the Fairy Godmother appeared and said, "You shall go to the ball!"

Prince Charming found her slipper at the ball and when it fitted they lived happily ever after!

The Big Bad Wolf blew down the house of straw and the house of wood.

So the third little pig came down the chimney he was cooked in the pot!

But the three bears came home and chased her out of the cottage and she never came back.

Once upon a time the three billy goats gruff went to cross the bridge o get to the green grass.

Goldilocks tasted all their porridge, broke baby bear’s chair and fell asleep in his bed!

The ugly sisters were horrible to Cinderella and treated her like a slave.

Goldilocks ate the third bear’s porridge and she tried to take her child but she managed to guess his name. He was so angry he put his foot through the floor!

The evil troll wouldn’t let them across the bridge and said he would eat them!

The wolf was hiding in the woods and followed her all the way to Grandma’s house.

Then a beanstalk sprung up and grew so high it reached into the land of a fierce giant.

The giant was angry and chased him but Jack cut the beanstalk down just in time!

He hid all through the winter but when he woke up in the spring he found he was a beautiful swan!

8. Then Rumpelstiltskin appeared and said he could turn straw into gold.

1. Print and cut around the outside of the cootie catcher

2. Fold in half and in half again

3. Open out, turn over so top is blank and fold each corner into the middle

4. Turn over and repeat so the numbers are folded into the middle

5. Turn over so you can see the pictures

6. Slide your thumb and your finger behind 2 of the pictures and press together so they bend round and touch

7. Turn over and repeat with the thumb and finger of the other hand for the other two pictures

8. All the pictures should now be at the front with centres touching and you are ready to use your cootie catcher!
